Muriel Kauffman Theatre

Single Ticket On-Sale Date: April 4, 2025, at 10 a.m.

Herb Alpert & The Tijuana Brass & Other Delights

This show will be an evening with Herb Alpert and his brand-new Tijuana Brass. Alpert, along with his six great musicians, will be playing all your favorite hit songs just as you remember.

A legendary trumpet player, Alpert's extraordinary musicianship has earned him five #1 hits, nine GRAMMY® Awards, fifteen Gold albums and fourteen Platinum albums. He has sold over 72 million records worldwide. Herb Alpert & The Tijuana Brass propelled his sound into the pop-music limelight, at one point outselling The Beatles two to one. In 1966, they achieved the remarkable feat of simultaneously having four albums in the Billboard Top 10 and five in the Top 20.

2025 will mark the 60th anniversary of the iconic album, "Whipped Cream & Other Delights." Alpert and the band will be performing many of those tracks in addition to other hit songs that we all know, "The Lonely Bull," "Spanish Flea," "Taste of Honey," "Mexican Shuffle," "Tijuana Taxi," "This Guy's In Love With You," "What Now My Love," "Zorba the Greek," "Ladyfingers," "Rise" and many other delights.

Alpert loves to answer questions from the audience about his career, A&M Records and the many iconic artists like Sérgio Mendes & Brasil '66, The Carpenters and Burt Bacharach that he has worked with over the past 63 years. The show features a giant video screen that displays hundreds of classic photos, videos, art and various memorabilia from Alpert's music career. ABOUT THE KAUFFMAN CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

Opening in 2011, the Kauffman Center serves as a cultural cornerstone for extraordinary and diverse music, opera, theater and dance performances for Kansas City and the region. Designed by internationally recognized architect Moshe Safdie, the Kauffman Center has been honored as one of the World's 15 Most Beautiful Concert Halls, which attracts some of the world's most renowned performers and entertainers. The 285,000-square-foot Center includes two performance halls: the 1,800-seat Muriel Kauffman Theatre that hosts dance performances, operas, plays and musicals and the 1,600-seat Helzberg Hall, a venue for a wide range of musical performances, from chamber music to full orchestral concerts, jazz and pop, lectures and recitals.

The Kauffman Center is the performance home for three of the region's leading performing arts organizations – Kansas City Ballet, Lyric Opera of Kansas City, Kansas City Symphony. In addition, the Kauffman Center Presents series brings in performing artists at the top of their classes as well as Trailblazing Talks, a live speaker series. Since opening, the Kauffman Center has offered over 3,100 performances and welcomed more than 4.5 million visitors.

By engaging the community and creating access to arts experiences, more than 415,000 students attended over 366 matinees offered by the Kauffman Center, its resident companies and other arts organizations. More information about the Kauffman Center for the Performing Arts can be found at kauffmancenter.org.
